UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

United States of America v.	ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL
Muhammad Abdul Salaam / Defendant	Case Number: 09-30436-3
In accordance with the Bail Reform Act facts require the detention of the defendant pendi	, 18 U.S.C. §3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following ng trial in this case.
	Part I – Findings of Fact lieve that the defendant has committed an offense of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841 or 846;
	not rebutted the presumption established by finding that no condition or combination ace of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
	Alternative Findings
$\checkmark$ I find that the government has establi will not appear.	ished by a preponderance of the evidence that there is a serious risk that the defendant
✓ I find that the government has establis will endanger the safety of another person or the	shed by clear and convincing evidence that there is a serious risk that the defendant community.
Part II –	Written Statement of Reasons for Detention
$\checkmark$ I find that the credible testimony and U.S.C. § 3142(g):	information submitted at the hearing established the following factors under 18
	onspiracy to receive/sell goods stolen from interstate shipment Very strong evidence that defendant participated in three efforts to steal from or community - Source information reveals that this defendant is a senior member of sociate of co-defendant Abdullah, who was killed in a shootout with arresting agents 1 further reveals that Salaam is referred to as "the gun man" because he has large caches of weapons in various lo	ocations. One source testified that he witnessed this defendant commit a murder. A

-	s home yielded two firearms (despite five felony convictions) and property attained ft conspiracy. There is also source information that Salaam assisted another individual owing a shooting in Detroit. Salaam has a record of employing alias identities and has two convictions for fraud/false	pretenses. I view him as a flight risk and an extreme danger to the witnesses in this unger to the community by reason of his chronic firearms possession.

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
